Description
i just found a bug today that, when i open the edit address, (which is done by double clicking the Ban), i edit it's value for example time to remove ban = 1 minute. when the 1 minute time reaches, the client gives error of "AdiIRC.IRC.Core.Channel.Channel No such nick/channel". Thanks.

Yeah editing ban time from the channel editor is a very new feature, this bug is fixed for next beta.
