

Quits Editor

The quits editor allows adding or editing or viewing custom/random quit messages.

it can be opened by clicking Menubar -> Tools -> Edit Quits or by typing /edit -q.

The editor shares characteristics with all the other editors.

See also /slap, Editor Options.

Quits format

Identifiers in the message is evaluated.

Saving quits to a different file

To save the current quits file to a different file, click the Menubar (inside the editor) -> File -> Save As menu item.

Loading quits from a different file

To load quits from a different file, click the Menubar (inside the editor) -> File -> Load menu item.

Search/replace text

Clicking the Menubar (inside the editor) -> Edit -> Find or pressing the CTRL + F shortcut opens the search and replace panel.

You can search or search and replace using a Regular Expression by checking the Regex checkbox.

Pressing the ESCAPE key closes the search panel.

Font

The font of the editor can be changed by clicking the Menubar (inside the editor) -> File -> Change Font menu item.

Note: only truetype fonts can be used.

Colors

The editor colors can be changed in Options -> Colors.

Files

quitseditor.png	16.7 KB	03/27/2021	Per Amundsen
-----------------	---------	------------	--------------